

Fiducial Expertise announces our New Tax Director:

Michael K. Williams, CPA, LLM

Fiducial Expertise is pleased to announce Michael Williams as its new Tax Director. With over 30 years of tax experience, Mike specializes in tax compliance and planning for businesses and individuals alike. His extensive knowledge and practice skills will significantly enhance our tax services for clients.

Background:

Before joining Fiducial, Mike held key roles as a managing and executive tax director at the Big Four and other top national and international public accounting firms. He has played a pivotal role in advising clients on strategic decisions related to business formations, growth, acquisitions, and dispositions from a tax perspective.

Qualifications:

- Licensed Certified Public Accountant (CPA)
- Masters in Taxation from DePaul University Law School
- J.D. from Villanova Law School and B.A. from Villanova University
- Published Tax Articles and Featured Speaker at Multiple Tax Conferences

Active in professional organizations, Mike is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and its Tax Division, as well as the Illinois CPA Society. He has also served as a trustee, officer, and finance committee member of nonprofit organizations.

Client Impact:

Mike's appointment reinforces Fiducial's commitment to expanding our comprehensive financial service capabilities and continuous enhancement of client services.

We are excited to welcome Michael Williams to our team and look forward to the positive impact he will have on our clients and company. With Mike's leadership, we are confident that Fiducial Expertise will continue to excel in providing top-notch tax services and strategic financial guidance. His arrival marks a significant milestone in our journey towards delivering exceptional value and service to our clients.
