Spoken Word Showcase

Three brilliant young artists will share their words in this spellbinding showcase. Natasha and Maya will perform original spoken word poetry and Madison will present her vision for an upcoming theatre production.

Natasha Elizabeth -

Natasha tells us her poetry is a mixed bag of self-discovery, womanhood and the result of spending too much time in her own thoughts. Poetry is a way for her to understand herself and the world around her in the hope that it will do the same for those who take the time to listen to her "waffle", her word not ours!

Maya Salway-Powell -

A spoken word act exploring topics such as love, friendship, sexuality, life and death.

Maya is a deep thinker and uses poetry to explore this. Writing, for her, is cathartic. It empowers her to process difficult emotions she's faced with.

Madison Bouchta -

Madison is one of TYCA's 2023 commissioned artists. She is writing, directing and producing an original theatrical play, which breaks stereotypes and explores the challenges faced by young people in the modern era. She will present her vision and share a short video about her process.
