

Dr. Molly Judge specializes in medical and surgical treatment for painful deformity in the foot and ankle

Providing care for patients ranging from young to the most mature. She has an attention to detail practice that often can fix what others have missed.

Success in foot and ankle surgery can be yours. Dr. Judge has an attention to detail practice that promotes conservative surgical therapy. She specializes in hard to treat conditions and those that have failed prior treatment. Surgical consultations and second opinions are available upon request.

