Title I Part A

Support for Disadvantaged Students

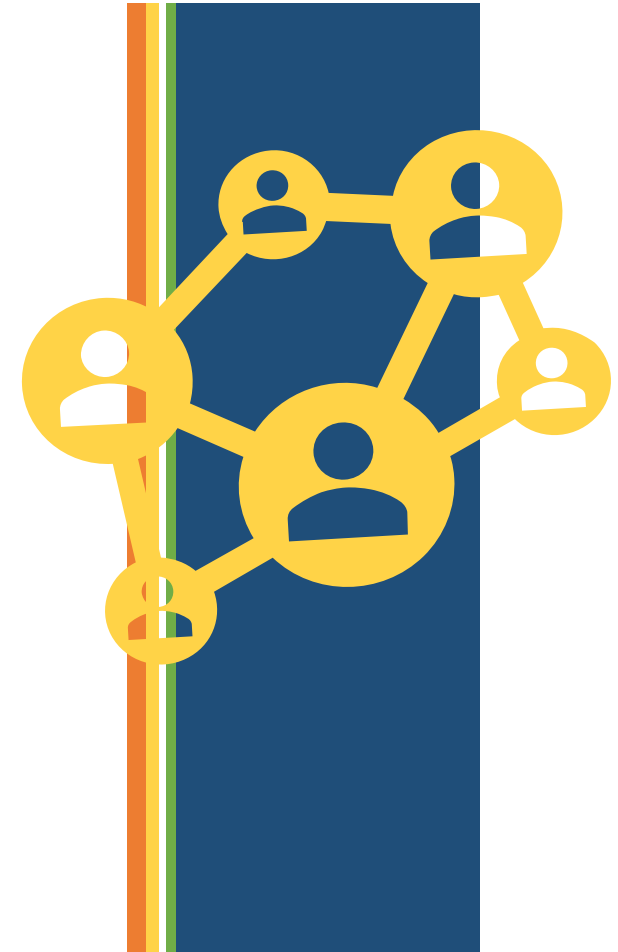

Schoolwide Programs

Parent and Family Engagement

District Programs

What is Title I, Part A?

Title I, Part A provides the District with resources that help children gain a high-quality education and the skills to master the Florida Standards. Title I provides additional resources to schools with economically disadvantaged students. These resources provide additional teachers, professional development, extra time for teaching, parent involvement activities, and other activities designed to raise student achievement.

Parent & Family Engagement

Title I, Part A

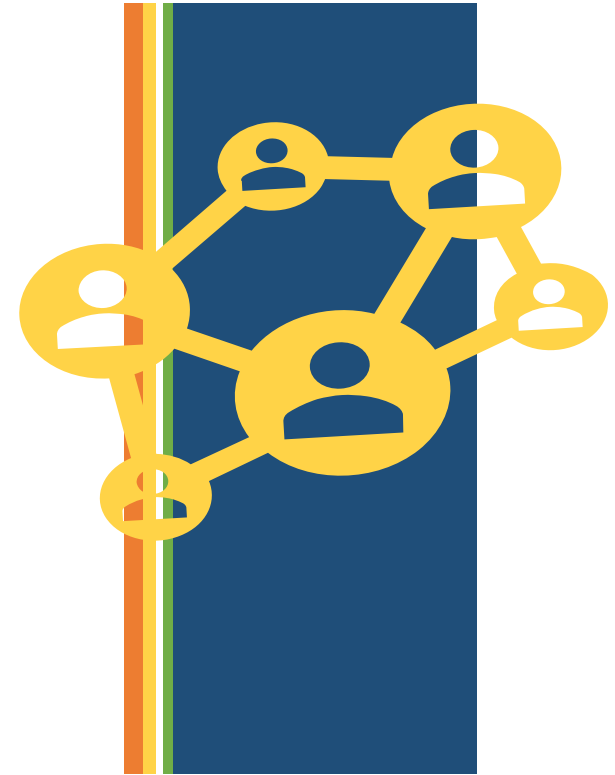

What is Family Engagement?

Family engagement is the process used to build genuine relationships with families.

Relationships with families support overall family well-being and children's healthy development

When families are engaged, partnerships are created that have a common focus— helping children grow and thrive.

Key Areas of Parent and Family Engagement?

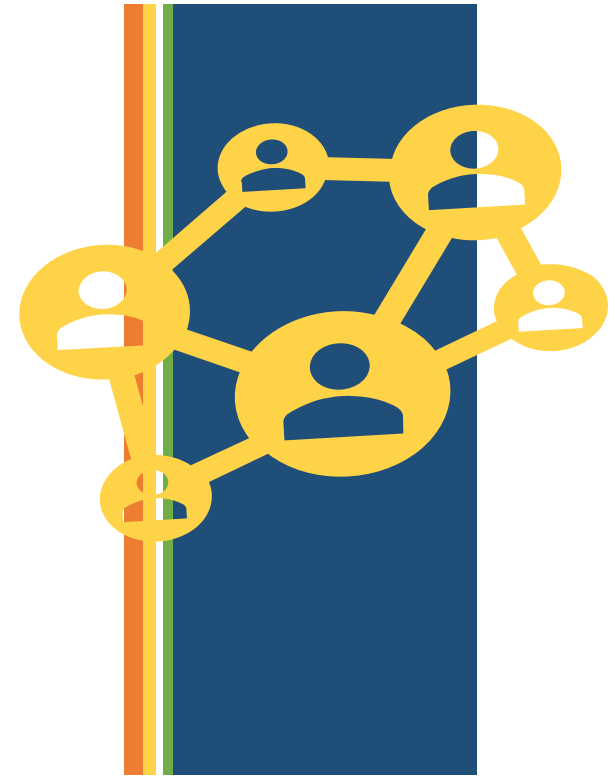

Parent and Family Engagement is a KEY area for Title I, Part A. A Parent and Family Engagement Plan is designed to guide and demonstrate the involvement of parents. Did you know that there are school and district plans?

The plan includes:

The Needs Assessment, Barriers, Strategies to overcome barriers, Communication Plan, Accessibility Plan for parents, Flexible Meeting times, and activities to Build the Capacity of parents.

Plans can be accessed at www.Seacoastcharteracademy.com and in Renweb under Resource Documents dangerous public schools.

The Purpose of the Title IV, Part A Student Support & Academic Enrichment Grant Is To:

Improve students' academic achievement by increasing the capacity of the District to provide all students with:

Access to a Well-Rounded Education

Safe and Healthy Schools

The use of Technology to Improve Academic Achievement and Digital Literacy

The Purpose of the Title IV, Part A Student Support & Academic Enrichment Grant Is To:

Access to a Well-Rounded Education

What is it?

A “well-rounded education” reflects courses, activities, and programming in the common subject areas, however there is an emphasis on areas students do not normally have engagement (STEM, programming, music, arts).

Safe and Healthy Schools

What is It?

The term “safe and healthy” refers to a school environment that fosters a safe and supportive environment for learning, student physical and mental health, and any other activities that cut across both these areas creating a “positive school climate”.

The use of Technology to Improve Academic Achievement and Digital Literacy

What Is It?

The “effective use of educational technology” is using technological efforts to help students achieve academically. Specifically, by promoting digital literacy of all students and providing professional development to the educators that teach and support them.

Title IV, Part A Uses at Seacoast

- Professional Development with an emphasis on Culturally Relevant Teaching
- Supplemental academic materials
- Virtual learning opportunities for students and staff

What Is It?

The “effective use of educational technology” has always been defined as using technological efforts to help students achieve academically. Specifically, by promoting digital literacy of all students and providing professional development to the educators that teach and support them.
