To Linda

By David Hale

Her blue-green waves wash o'er me like a symphony from the sea
Her clouds, soft white in a sky of blue and fiery streaks or red...
Another day is put to bed.

She paints in hues of blue and green and yellow
That make the heart go mellow
And oft in deep purple and darkish red
That stir the soul with like and color wed.

Her mountains soar up to the sky,
Soft-blue, where eagles fly,
From the ponds where fishes swim, fishermen fish
And dreamers cast a wish.

She paints of rustle bridges, haunting tombstones
And people so sublime...
They move from palette into like and time.

She paints of life...

About Trinity Church

Trinity Church is pleased to present a solo art exhibition by local artist Linda Fedigan Hale from April 6 – 30, 2024.

Our long-established church, offers special events to our community and we welcome your participation.

On a fine, clear Spring Day, in March 1848 twenty-two men representing 20 families, gathered at the session room of the First Religious Society of Rome (later the First Presbyterian Church) and under the leadership of Reverend Alexander Wetzel a church was established.

The people of the newly formed church named themselves the United German Evangelical Lutheran Congregation of Rome and had no relationship or connection with any particular denomination. They were adjusting to the American culture and many of the men were poorly paid laborers in the mills and foundries of this thriving community.

In 1849, our forefathers erected a wood frame building on the northwest corner of South James and Ridge streets on a lot donated by the trustees of the estate of Dominick Lynch. The official dedication of the structure, which would become known as the "Little German Church" took place on October 25, 1851.

In 1927 the congregation decided they needed a church more centrally located to its congregation and purchased our current facility from the Welsh Congregational Society.

Throughout its history, Trinity Church has grown and prospered however; like many churches today, Trinity faces many challenges and constantly seeks ways to address current issues and find the best ways to serve its congregation during these troubled times. We work to bring joy to others by providing much needed resources to a vast number of people in need both around the globe and locally.

Trinity welcomes all to join us at our weekly services which are held at 10:00am each Sunday in person or can be viewed at home with zoom. Our sanctuary is handicap accessible with an inside elevator.

Trinity offers a variety of activities for all ages to members and the community throughout the year.

If you would like to receive our monthly newsletter you can contact the church by phone, e-mail or in person.

About the Artist

Artist, Linda Fedigan Hale was born in Auburn, New York and started oil painting in the early seventies under the influence and instruction of Joyce Berry from Skaneateles, New York. Linda also took several art courses at local colleges throughout her life, but her greatest mentor is Joyce. Joyce studied and taught art to many students in the Louve in Paris, France. After painting with Joyce, Linda has learned the freedom of movement, soul and expression to work freely with her canvasses.

Linda's canvases, demanding worthy prices, hang in several private collections and commercial establishments throughout the United States particularly the East Coast. Linda's work keeps the landmarks, parks and local sites in lasting memory for many people to enjoy. Her art is representational and her colors elude definition as she mixes and remixes to achieve moody waves and a sky full of daylight. Viewers marvel over her sky work and are surprised to see, after a long study, a liberal use of reds in the grey blue sky. Many people have asked Linda if she uses a pallet knife to get the rich three dimensional affect to her work. After years of painting Linda has developed her own unique style. Linda has been in several art shows and juried shows throughout her career. She continues to enjoy her art and her new surroundings around the Mohawk Valley area. After traveling throughout Europe and several states, Linda had found that Upstate New York is truly blessed with many diverse landscapes, lakes and beauty. The Mohawk Valley area is a beautiful place to reside.
