

Note: In September 1999, after having a reprieve from Regina Social Services and Dr. E. Ivanochko our serenity was upset again. The children's mother applied for access to her children as did Charlene's father who had been encouraged by Social Services to apply for custody of her.

Dec 22/99 BOTH PARTIES ADVISED & COPIES SENT [Signature] Exhibit "D" referred to in the Affidavit of Arlene Lowery re me this 29th day of FEBRUARY A.D. 2001 [Signature] Commissioner of Oaths in and for the Province of Saskatchewan Term Expires JAN 31 2011	11 Hildebrande 545241 LOWERY v. DOBSON FLD35/98 SB42625 OR 58114 Fiat: December 20, 1999 The mother (respondent) seeks supervised access through FLD Services to her children, Charlene (6) and Jonathan (3). I will briefly touch upon some of the background. In February 1998 an order was made granting the petitioner's (maternal grandparents) interim custody. The mother was restrained from any contact with the grandparents or the children. The children had been in the care of the Minister since March 1997. The allegations against the mother include involvement in drugs and alcohol, prostitution, the occult and sexual abuse of her children. She is said to have been diagnosed with Multiple Personality Dissociative Disorder. In bringing her present application the mother says charges against her were stayed. She says both DSS and the prosecutions unit have said the allegations against her were unfounded and the children have been deeply influenced by her mother. Pursuant to section 96(1) of The Queen's Bench Act I am of the view the children would benefit from professional services. The court appoints Dr. Gerald Farthing of Saskatoon to do an assessment of the children and, if he deems it appropriate to make such recommendations to the court for further assessment/counseling, or other services for the children he may feel appropriate. Without wishing to restrict the issues or sources of information Dr. Farthing may feel appropriate it would seem to the court the issues include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> An assessment of the children in the context of the allegations made and the suggestion the children have been influenced by their grandmother. Can he shed any light on the allegations or the suggestion the children are being influenced by their grandmother.
