Nestled in the heart of Strathroy is the Clocktower, built by Canadian architect Thomas Fuller in 1889. During this time it was home to the Federal Post Office. This historic landmark has been restored into a modern Bistro and Inn. We offer a diverse menu focusing on comfort classics with a fresh flare, as well as local craft beer and wine. The inn holds 8 individually Victorian decorated suites perfect for a destination getaway. With much to offer we welcome you to enjoy your visit.
